Handel, arr by Lowell Mason, 1836

The image displays an organ arrangement of the piece "Antioch" by George Frideric Handel, arranged by Lowell Mason in 1836. The music is written for organ and is set in G major (two sharps) and 2/4 time. It consists of three systems of notation, each with three staves: a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and a separate bass line. The first system is labeled "Organ" on the left. The second system is labeled "Org." and the third is also labeled "Org.". The piece begins with a treble clef staff containing a melody of eighth and quarter notes, a bass clef staff with a simple harmonic accompaniment, and a separate bass line with a more active eighth-note pattern. The piece concludes with a double bar line.
