

CRUSADERS' HYMN

Silesian Folk melody;
Schlesische Volkslieder, Leipzig, 1842

Organ

The image displays an organ arrangement of the hymn 'Crusaders' Hymn'. It consists of three systems of musical notation. Each system includes a grand staff with a treble clef and a bass clef, and a separate bass staff. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats), and the time signature is 2/2. The first system shows the initial four measures, with the treble staff playing a melody of quarter notes and the bass staff providing a harmonic accompaniment of chords and moving lines. The second system continues the piece for the next four measures, maintaining the same melodic and harmonic structure. The third system concludes the piece in the final four measures, ending with a double bar line. The organ arrangement uses various voicings and textures, including block chords and moving lines in both hands, to create a rich and expressive sound.
